Lost and Found

Lost and Found—Year 1 Version to learn

Once there was a boy. One cold winters day he found a penguin at his door.

The penguin looked sad and the boy thought it must be lost. So the boy decided to row to the South Pole with the penguin. They rowed for many days and nights. They rowed over waves as big as mountains until they reached the South Pole.

The boy said good bye and floated away. But the penguin looked sadder than ever. The boy thought and he thought and he thought. The penguin wasn't lost..... he was lonely! Quickly, he rowed back to the South Pole as fast as he could. The boy search and he search but the penguin was nowhere to be seen. Suddenly the boy saw something in the water. He got closer and closer until he could see..... the penguin!

The boy and the penguin rowed home together talking of wonderful things all the way.
