Ancient Greek Religion

The Ancient Greeks were a religious lot. They believed that their gods and goddesses controlled everything in the world and that they must be revered and appeased.

The Ancient Greek people built huge, beautiful temples and shrines where they could go to worship the gods.

They also held festivals in honour of the gods and people would pray and make offerings to them in hope of being granted good fortune in return.

Mount Olympus

The Ancient Greeks believed that the twelve most powerful gods lived at the top of a huge mountain called Mount Olympus. However, some very important gods such as Hades; God of the Underworld, did not live there.

Mount Olympus was where the gods held meetings and disputes were settled.

Myths and Legends

The Ancient Greek people told many stories featuring their gods and goddesses. Many Greek myths feature scary monsters and tell tales of heroic quests. The stories helped the Ancient Greek people make sense of the world and explained how things came to be.

The stories were passed on Orally as people did not read and write. Over time, the stories became more exciting and scary and the characters became more heroic. They became the legends that we know today!

Myths and Legends

What have we learnt about the gods?

What stories have been written about them?

We are now going to plan our own Greek myth!

What should we include?

1. Who is your hero and what is the setting?
2. What is the problem or dilemma?
3. What god/goddess do they meet? How does the god/goddess help them?
4. What monster do they meet?
5. How is the problem solved?
6. How does the story end?

Our Greek Myth

The story dice will give us ideas for the god, setting, monster and hero that we will use.

Let's roll the dice and see what story ideas we get!
