Day 2021

An internet we trust

Exploring reliability in the online world

Lesson Slides for Ages 7-11

Lesson Aim

Learners will use and develop their critical thinking skills to question the motives behind what they see. By focusing first on commercial influences (e.g. advertising) it will help them explore trust online and challenge their personal responses when engaging with the wider digital world.

Lesson Outcomes

Learners will be able to:

- Describe and recognise some methods used to encourage people to buy things online.
- Give examples of when and why it is important to understand the motive behind online content.
- Use questions to help decide what can and cannot be trusted online.

Key vocabulary

Advert, profit, motive, unboxing, giveaway, merch, collab, affiliate link

Let's play...

Scattergories!

You have ____ minutes to think of an answer for each category beginning with ____.

Hint:

If more than one person puts an answer it's worth 2 points.
If only one person puts an answer it's worth 5 points.

Where have you seen adverts before?
What did they look like?

People can profit from the things they do online...

Get something they didn't have before

Money paid to advertise or promote things

Things that cost money
given for free

New likes, views, subscribers or followers

So there could be more to your favourite YouTuber than you thought...

It's always helpful to think about motive

A motive is why someone does something.

Safer Internet
Day 2021

Why would someone do this? What is their motive?

To make people laugh

Post a video on YouTube

To advertise
a product

To share their opinion about something

To make money

It could be more than one!

Why would someone do this? What is their motive?

To support an article or some information

Share a photo online

Because they want to sell something shown in the picture

Because they want their family or friends to see it

Because they find it funny

It could be more than one!

Why would someone do this? What is their motive?

To get more likes or subscribers

Run a giveaway

To reward their followers

To celebrate a big achievement

Because they're being paid to advertise a product

It could be more than one!

When you see something online

Ask...

Where has this come from?

Who created or shared it?

What do they want me to do?

Will they gain anything?

This will help you find the motive
(The reason why)
