CHOOSE THE WORLD YOU WANT
FAIRTRADE

Many of our choices will have an effect on other people. Sometimes they will have a big effect.

Watch this short clip about how our choices can change the world.

Can you match each of the choices with a 'consequence'?

Choice	Consequence
You choose to recycle your rubbish.	Your choice means cotton farmers in countries such as India and China, are paid a fair price for the cotton they produce.
You choose a school uniform that uses Fairtrade cotton.	Your choice means that the cocoa farmers, vanilla farmers and sugar farmers who grew your ingredients will be paid a fair price.
You choose a Fairtrade banana to have at snack time.	Your choice means that flower workers in countries such as Kenya, Ethiopia and Sri Lanka get money to spend on healthcare, education or other needs.
You choose to bake using Fairtrade ingredients.	Your choice means banana farmers in countries such as Colombia and the Dominican Republic have more money to meet the needs of their communities.
You and your family choose a beautiful bunch of Fairtrade sunflowers for your living room.	Your choice means your rubbish is made into something new! You've protected animals and their habitats from being harmed by litter.
You choose to take your old clothes to a charity shop instead of putting them in the rubbish bin.	Your choice has saved your clothes from ending up in a landfill. Landfills produce toxic gases that cause climate change. Your choice has also made a charity shopper very happy!

The choices on these cards were choices that had positive consequences.

Look at the choice cards again and consider an alternative choice that might have negative consequences e.g. Instead of choosing to recycle your rubbish you might throw it in a regular rubbish bin.

Write these on the back of the choices cards

Can we think of the following

1 choice our school can make to make a positive change in the world

1 choice our class can make to make a positive change in the world

1 choice you can make to make a positive change in the world
