

WALT

to punctuate a passage accurately.

with the hot sun on his back james looked up at his parents he could hear their faint snores over the roaring of the sea as they slept looking around at the caves in the distance james decided it was time to go back

5 minutes later he was almost there the menacing waves of the sea threw up shreds of seaweed and jagged rocks blocked his path to the caves gulls cackled overhead and the sky began to turn grey after navigating the rocks james arrived at the entrance to the caves and paused he tried to remember which cave it had come from he chose what he hoped was the right one took a breath and ventured in this time he would be brave enough to stay and find out what was in there
